

NEWSLETTER – February 2014

Following the success of our Saturday-morning school and the demand for places from families coming from further afield, we are very proud to announce our intention to open a new branch of Les Petits Ecoliers in Ware in September.

If you know any French-speaking families around Ware / Hertford / Harlow who might be interested in this new school, please ask them to get in touch at: lespetitsecoliers@hotmail.co.uk.

September enrolments (already!)

Many of you have told us that you want younger siblings to start in September. Please don't forget that to secure a place we need you to fill in an application form and pay a deposit. Please do get in touch!

Ciné-club

Ernest et Célestine

The children (bilingual or not!) are invited to stay after classes to watch a film on Saturday 29 March, from midday to 1:30pm.

They may bring a picnic to eat during the film.

More information to follow...

Petite Ecole FLAM

We are delighted to inform you that Les Petits Ecoliers is now part of the FLAM organisation, which works closely with the French consulate and encourages development and instruction of French as the mother tongue within the UK.

We will be participating in their conferences twice a year and are in regular contact with the organisers and other FLAM schools to share ideas and resources. The support of the FLAM organisation will be most welcome when setting up our new branch in Ware.

Session for parents on Bilingualism

Amy Waters, a speech & language therapist with a special interest in bilingualism, will be at Les Petits Ecoliers on Saturday 29 March from 12:15pm to 1:30pm (at the same time as the ciné-club) to talk about raising bilingual children. All parents are welcome. More details about the event and the cost of the session will follow...
